Authority

The Justice Administrative Commission (JAC) is authorized to process and approve state payment of due process services (meaning services that are required to defend a case, such as court reporters, investigators, and expert witnesses) for indigent persons, or persons who have a statutory or constitutional right to court-appointed counsel. JAC processes bills for due process services on behalf of indigent defendants including those that are pro se (self-represented). The types of services for which JAC processes payments are listed in s. 29.007, F.S. Pursuant to s. 27.52(5), F.S., before JAC can process bills for due process services, a court must find that the self-represented defendant is “indigent for costs” (meaning that the defendant is eligible for state-funded due process services). If a defendant is represented by the public defender, regional counsel, privately retained counsel, or private court-appointed counsel, then payment of due process services are handled by those attorneys unless the attorney is acting as standby counsel. Standby counsel is an attorney who is appointed by a court to be available if a self-represented defendant requests the assistance of appointed counsel.

Requirements

A pro se individual must be determined by a court as indigent for costs under section 27.52(5), F.S. In order to process a due process invoice(s) for a pro se individual, JAC must be provided with:

- A copy of the completed application to the clerk of the court for determination of indigent status;
- A copy of the court order determining the individual to be indigent for costs under section 27.52(5), F.S., and eligible for the provision of due process services;
- A copy of the motion seeking payment of due process costs;
- A copy of the order approving state payment of due process costs which specifies the name of the provider and the dollar amount approved by the court;
- A completed and signed JAC Invoice; and
- An original invoice where the service provider chooses to use his or her own invoice along with the JAC Invoice.

Establishing Indigency

To have the JAC process payment for due process costs, the trial court must find the defendant “indigent for costs” under s. 27.52(5), F.S. This finding must occur before a defendant seeks the court’s appointment and/or authorization of any due process service or service provider. A clerk of court’s determination of indigence for appointment of counsel under s. 27.52(1), F.S., is not sufficient. The defendant must obtain a separate order from the trial court declaring the defendant “indigent for costs” under s. 27.52(5), F.S. A copy of this order must be provided to JAC along with a copy of the charging document (the information or indictment).

Allowable Costs

Due process services are those that are necessary to defend a case. JAC is authorized to process bills for state payment of due process services authorized by ss. 27.425, 27.5305, and 29.007, F.S. Allowable due process costs include:

- Court reporting and transcription costs;
- Interpreters and translators at depositions or witness interviews;
- Private service of process when the sheriff is not available or unable to provide service;
- Private investigator services including costs to obtain case-related materials or documents;
- Mitigation specialist services in capital death cases;
- Witness and expert witness fees;
- Mental health professionals;
- Reasonable pretrial consultation fees and costs; and
- Travel costs for witness.

Established Rates. Each year, the Legislature sets the rates paid to due process service providers in the General Appropriations Act. The Legislature has adopted uniform statewide rates for court reporting, and investigative services in all cases; in addition to mitigation specialist services in capital death cases. Rates for other due process services may be different in each circuit. A rate chart is included in your packet at page 48. Rate charts for other circuits are can be found at: https://www.justiceadmin.org/court_app_counsel/formsandrates.aspx

What JAC Cannot Process. JAC has no authority to process bills for legal materials, office supplies, access to legal research materials, postage, or telephone charges. A defendant is not entitled to additional costs because the defendant is in jail. Such supplies are provided at the institution in which the defendant is incarcerated. If being in jail makes self-representation difficult, a defendant may wish to request that the court appoint an attorney. Please know that pro se (self-represented) defendants cannot be paid for representing themselves.

JAC generally does not process bills for costs in civil cases such as family law cases, probate cases, and civil law suits. Those cases are not within the scope of s. 27.52(5), F.S. In post-conviction cases, JAC is not authorized to process any bills for costs until a motion for post-conviction relief has been filed with the trial court, and the trial court has issued an order stating that there are issues needing further review or consideration (evidentiary hearing) by a court.

Motion and Order for Due Process Services

Motion for Court Authorization of Due Process Services. State payment of due process services must be authorized by a court order, except where JAC has indicated that prior court authorization is not required. A motion requesting authorization for due process services should state the due process services requested (such as expert and/or investigator) and the dollar amount (cost) for those services (the maximum amount to be spent). The motion should also explain why those services are needed by the defense. The defendant must show that the due process services are reasonable and necessary for the defense of the case.

Unless JAC has expressly waived its right to a hearing, JAC must be provided with a copy of the written motion and notice of hearing prior to a court entering an order regarding any motion for state payment of due process costs or related expenses.

The written motion requesting the services and state payment should be filed and decided by the trial court before ordering any due process services. A copy of the motion must be sent (served) to JAC before the trial court considers the motion. JAC is entitled to reasonable notice, which is at least five business days' notice, of any hearing set on a motion for due process services. The defendant is responsible for sending the notice of hearing to JAC. When providing JAC notice, the defendant must consider mailing time.

JAC Response. JAC will respond to any motion for due process services typically within five business days after receiving the motion. JAC may oppose the request for any due process services and/or the amount requested for the due process services. JAC's response will state whether JAC desires a hearing on the motion or not. When a defendant requests due process services at a rate higher than the established rates, the motion must state the need for services at the higher rate. The defendant must show that the requested due process services are necessary for the defense of the case and that the defendant made diligent efforts to obtain the services within the established rates. To facilitate your search for a due process service provider, please know that JAC posts the Due Process Vendors with JAC Contracts on its website at <https://justiceadmin.org/Contracted%20Due%20Process%20Vendors/default.aspx>. Please note that JAC does not verify the professional qualifications of the persons listed. It is the sole responsibility of the party using the services of a person listed to verify their professional qualifications. Generally, requests seeking rates higher than the established rates apply to experts. Requests for investigators, court reporters, interpreters, and private process servers must be within the established rates.

Court Order. A court order authorizing due process services must contain necessary information for JAC to process a bill for payment. The court order should be obtained by the defendant before the services are performed. For payment purposes, the order should list each service authorized, the rate, and the maximum amount authorized for each service. If the defendant is seeking a rate that is higher than the established rates or there is no rate established for the type of service, then the order must state the rate authorized by the court. JAC cannot process a bill for any rate higher than the established rates without an order allowing the higher rate.

As long as the order sets forth the due process services authorized, the maximum amount authorized, and the applicable rate when required, JAC can process a bill for those services without need for another court order. The bill must be consistent with the amounts authorized by the court order. If JAC has objections to a bill, JAC will issue a letter of objection explaining JAC concerns.

Court Reporter Services

Court Reporter Appearance Fees. JAC may process bills for court reporter appearance fees for payment without a court order. As long as the deposition may be taken without the need for prior court approval under the Florida Rules of Criminal Procedure, JAC does not need an order authorizing payment of court reporter appearance fees. In most instances, Category A witnesses under Fla. R. Crim. P. 3.220(b) may be deposed without prior court approval. However, payment for transcription of this type of deposition does require a court order.

Transcripts. All transcripts, except appellate transcripts, require a court order. Unlike other due process services, orders authorizing transcripts do not need to indicate the amount authorized. When deposition transcripts are authorized by the court, JAC will pay for one original and one copy. The court order should state the name of the witness and the date of the deposition. An order may authorize transcripts for more than one witness. For hearing transcripts (other than appellate), the order should state the type of hearing and the date. For transcription of audiotapes, the order should state the name of the witness or type of recording (i.e., 911 call) and date of recording. For appellate transcripts, the designation of the record (hearings to be transcribed for the appeal) required by Fla. R. App. P. 9.200 may be used instead of a court order.

Transcript Copies. JAC can only pay for the cost of one original transcript of any deposition, hearing, or other proceeding. Once an original has been paid by JAC, any future copies are paid for at the copy rate, even if the transcript is designated as an original.

Expedited Rates for Transcripts. For JAC to pay expedited (“rush job”) rates for any transcript, a motion stating the reason for expedited rates and an order approving the rates must be provided. Both the motion and the order need to state the reason for the expedited rates. JAC generally does not pay expedited rates when the need for expedited rates is the result of inaction. It is a defendant’s responsibility to request transcript in a timely manner.

Videotaped Depositions. A court order is required for the videotaping of a deposition, except where a deposition is legally required to be videotaped. No court order is required when the deposition is of a child under the age of 18. Absent extraordinary circumstances, JAC will not process payment for the attendance of both a court reporter and the person taping the deposition. The videotape is an electronic record from which a court reporter can prepare a transcript at a later date, if so required.

Investigator Services

Court Order. A court order authorizing private investigator services is required for JAC to process an investigator bill for payment. The order authorizing investigator services should be obtained before the investigator provides any services. The order should set forth the specific need for private investigator services, the rate, and the maximum amount of costs authorized for those services.

Private Investigator’s Role. The role of a private investigator is limited to providing investigative services, such as: locating and interviewing witnesses; locating and securing documents and other evidence relevant to the case; performing background checks; and researching any other factual issue relevant to the case, such as credibility and character of witnesses. An investigator is not a substitute for a paralegal or secretary and cannot be used to perform administrative tasks.

With prior court approval, JAC may pay process bills for costs to obtain documents such as charges for discovery-related costs or for medical records of the defendant. These costs are usually paid for by the investigator and then reimbursed by JAC.

Private Service of Process

As a general rule, JAC does not process bills for private service of process. Under s. 57.081, F.S., the sheriff will provide service of process without requiring prepayment in cases involving indigent persons. In order to use a private process server to serve witnesses, a motion must be filed stating the need for a private process server. If the circuit has an authorized rate for private service of process, then the court order does not need to indicate the rate for private service of process. If the circuit has no authorized rate, the motion and order must indicate the rate sought for private service of process. When authorized, a private investigator for the defendant can provide service of process. However, the investigator may only bill JAC for the rate allowed for private service of process.

Mitigation Specialist Services in Capital Death Cases

JAC can only process bills for mitigation specialists in capital cases in which the state is seeking the death penalty. A mitigation specialist must have a valid Class “C”- Private Investigator License, issued by the Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, and be affiliated with an investigative firm with a valid Class “A”- Private Investigative Agency license. The only exception is if the mitigation specialist has another professional license that substitutes for the investigator license, such as a license in social work, mental health or other.

Expert Services

Motion for Expert Services. Prior to retaining an expert, the defendant must file a written motion seeking the court’s authorization for state payment of expert services. Experts include psychologists, medical doctors, crime scene experts, accident reconstructionists, DNA experts, ballistic/firearms experts, and other persons with specialized knowledge and training that permits them to testify as an expert before a court.

The defendant has the burden to show the particularized (specific) need for the expert’s services. The information in the motion should be sufficiently detailed for the trial court and the JAC to understand the need for the requested expert. Generally, experts are paid on an hourly basis. In limited circumstances, a court may authorize compensation in a different manner such as a flat fee for a competency evaluation; a set rate for a type of DNA test; or a fee for medical procedures like MRIs, CAT scans, or PET scans. In those situations, the motion and order must state the set rate or fee for those services. JAC does not prepay retainers for expert services or any other due process services.

Out of State Experts. The use of out-of-state experts is not authorized when there are competent experts available in Florida. A defendant should not request out-of-state experts without showing that there are no other experts with appropriate skills or expertise available, first, in the county in which the case was filed, and second, in any other county in Florida. To facilitate your search for a due process service provider in Florida, please know that JAC posts the Due Process Vendors with JAC Contracts on its website at <https://justiceadmin.org/Contracted%20Due%20Process%20Vendors/default.aspx>.

Please note that JAC does not verify the professional qualifications of the persons listed. It is the sole responsibility of the party using the services of a person listed to verify their professional qualifications.

Number of Experts. Generally, the defendant is only entitled to one expert in an area (such as mental health). If the defendant desires more than one expert in similar categories, the defendant must establish the reason for the appointment of multiple experts in the same general area.

Exhaustion of Amount Authorized

When using a due process vendor, the defendant should inform the due process vendor of the amount authorized by the trial court. This can be done by providing the due process vendor with a copy of the court order. If the vendor is going to exceed the amount authorized, the vendor must immediately notify the defendant if additional services are required so that the defendant can file a motion with the court for approval of state payment of additional due process services. The defendant should file a motion requesting additional services before the due process vendor performs any additional services in the matter.

Travel Expenses

When authorized by law, JAC can process bills for travel expenses pursuant to s. 112.061, F.S. Generally, travel expenses must be approved by a specific court order. All travel must be pursuant to Florida law, particularly the requirements of s. 112.061, F.S. Travel reimbursement is only for witnesses and due process vendors. Reimbursement for travel expenses must be submitted on the State of Florida Voucher for Reimbursement of Travel which is accepted by the Department of Financial Services. This voucher can be found on JAC's website at: https://www.justiceadmin.org/court_app_counsel/attorney_fees/travel/D.%20Travel/DFS-AA-15VoucherforReimbursement.pdf

Submission of Bills

JAC Invoice. JAC Invoices for due process services are necessary to process due process bill for state payment. The defendant and/or due process vendor must complete, sign, and submit the correct JAC Invoice as well as all supporting documents. JAC only accepts bills submitted with JAC Invoices. Bills sent without a JAC Invoice are not reviewed. Generally, the due process vendor will prepare the JAC Invoice. However, copies of these invoices are contained in your Pro Se Packet.

The JAC Invoice must be fully completed and include all the information requested on the JAC Invoice. After reviewing the bill packet, the defendant must sign the JAC Invoice to allow payment to a due process vendor. By signing the "Certification," the defendant certifies (confirms) that the work was necessary and completed satisfactorily. JAC cannot process any JAC Invoice for payment that is not signed by the defendant or standby counsel. (Standby counsel can act as an authorized representative of the defendant for this purpose.) The only instance when JAC can process a JAC Invoice that is not signed by the defendant is where appellate transcripts are certified by the clerk of the court.

Audit Deficiency Notice. When JAC receives a bill for due process services without necessary documentation or information, JAC may send the due process vendor and the defendant an Audit Deficiency Notice. The Notice will state the reason JAC is unable to process the bill and will request that the due process vendor and/or the defendant provide the lacking documentation or information. When JAC issues an Audit Deficiency Notice, the due process vendor and/or defendant needs to provide the additional documentation to resolve the issue quickly. Failure to resolve the issues listed in the Audit Deficiency Notice may result in JAC paying the billing at a lower rate or returning the bill.

Letter of Objection. If JAC has an objection to a due process vendor's bill, JAC may send a letter of objection. The letter will list JAC's objection(s) and whether JAC requires a hearing on the matter. Until JAC issues a letter of objection, a defendant is not permitted to file a motion for payment. An Audit Deficiency Notice is not a letter of objection. When a defendant receives a letter of objection, the defendant is responsible for filing a motion for payment of the invoice with the court. A copy of JAC's letter of objection must be attached to the motion. JAC must be served with a copy of the motion.

JAC's Due Process Vendor Lists

JAC maintains lists of due process vendors with current JAC contracts. The information on the list is from the vendors and has not been approved or checked by JAC. It is the responsibility of the defendant using the services of a listed vendor to check their professional qualifications. The listing of a vendor on JAC's list does not mean that JAC recommends or approves the hiring of the vendor. In addition, even if a vendor is listed, JAC may still object to the trial court's authorization/payment of the vendor including any objection to rates higher than the rates established by law. It is the defendant's responsibility to make diligent efforts to obtain services within the rates established by law.

ORDER AUTHORIZING THE DEFENSE TO INCUR COSTS FOR CASE-RELATED DOCUMENTS AND MATERIALS

THIS Motion to Incur Costs for Case-Related Documents and Materials is before this Court in the above cause; and this Court having reviewed the Motion and the response of the Justice Administrative Commission, the Court finds that the defense has shown this request is necessary for the defense of the case.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND ADJUDGED as follows:

1. The Defense is authorized to incur up to $_____ for costs to obtain case-related documents and materials including but not limited to discovery from the office of the state attorney, law enforcement records, medical records, records obtained through subpoena duces tecum, and other pertinent case-related documents and materials.

2. This authorization does not apply to court-related fees and charges assessed by the local clerk of court pursuant to the terms of sections 28.345 and 57.081, Florida Statutes, because the defendant is indigent and therefore entitled to obtain documents and materials from the local clerk of court without requirement of prepayment.

3. The amount incurred for these costs will conform to the limits set forth in Florida law, including but not limited to section 92.153, Florida Statutes (costs for producing documents pursuant to a subpoena duces tecum); section 119.07, Florida Statutes (fees for public records requests to state entities); and section 395.3025, Florida Statutes (fees to obtain medical records).

4. Should a party providing case-related documents or materials to the defense desire direct payment from the Justice Administrative Commission, the party must enter into a contract with the Justice Administrative Commission. The defense and the party must comply with all policies and procedures of the Justice Administrative Commission related to the submission of billings for direct payment to a due process vendor.

5. The Defendant is liable to pay the amount of any due process costs provided to the defense as directed by sections 27.52 and 938.29, Florida Statutes. If the Defendant is convicted, the Court is responsible for determining the amount of the obligation to be imposed as a lien against the Defendant.
